

Professional educator with experience in school library media, technology integration, curriculum development, and instructional leadership.

Cristin M. Dillard

Professional Educator

CERTIFICATIONS

Alabama

Class AA: Educational Leadership (P-12)

Class A: Library Media Specialist (P-12)

Class B: Comprehensive Social Science (6-12)

DoDEA

0220 Teacher, Social Studies, MS

0320 Teacher, Social Studies, SS

0352 Teacher, Humanities, SS

0480 Information Specialist, ES

0481 Information Specialist, MS

0481 Information Specialist, SS

AWARDS and ACHIEVEMENTS

- 2018-2019 President Elect of Alabama School Library Association (ASLA)
- Founder and Organizer of EdCamp Enterprise
- Founder and Organizer of EdCamp ASLA
- 2016 American Library Association Emerging Leader
- 2016 Pike County Schools Secondary Teacher of the Year
- 2013 Served on the ALSDE Technology Plan Advisory Committee to develop Transform 2020 Technology Plan
- 2011 Honorable Mention - Excellence in Teaching with Technology from the University of Alabama College of Education
- ALEX Trainer, content writer and reviewer, 2011 - present
- Selected as a Beta cohort member of the ALET Technology Integration Coach program

EDUCATION

- Educational Specialist of Instructional Leadership and Administration, May 2018
Troy University, Phenix City, Alabama
- Instructional Leadership and Administration, July 2016
Troy University, Dothan, Alabama (Reduced Hour Option/Certification)
- Masters of Library and Information Science, August 2011
The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Alabama
- Bachelors of Science in Education, Summa Cum Laude, December 2007
Troy University, Troy, Alabama
Majors: Secondary Education and Social Science

EXPERIENCE

Technology Integration Coach, Enterprise City Schools, 6/2017 - present

- Works with faculties in nine different schools (PK-12) to integrate technology, utilize Chromebooks, and promote the 4 C's through professional learning opportunities
- Works with educators in coaching environment to provide support for best practices of integrating technology and provides professional development
- Collaborates with district library media specialists to develop effective library media programs, implement best practices, foster a climate of collaboration among the library media specialist and the faculty of the school, and advocate for the leadership role of media specialists

Information Specialist, Fort Rucker Primary School, DoDEA, 8/2016 - 6/2017

- Served on the Continuous School Improvement committee to develop and implement plans to increase student achievement
- Collaborated with colleagues to develop engaging lessons to meet AASL information literacy standards and DoDEA content area standards

Library Media Specialist, Banks School, Pike County Schools, 7/2011 - 8/2016

- 2013-2016 Chaired the First Class PreK grant committee to develop, write, and administer the PreK program
- Completed Instructional Leadership residency with duties which included sitting in on interviews, attending administrative meetings, professional development planning and delivery, collaborating with other administrators, and leading colleagues
- Served on the ACIP committee to drive continuous improvement of student achievement and document implementation of the actions steps
- Served on the school and district technology planning committees to develop and implement technology purchasing, documentation, and evaluation
- Provided professional development at the school and district level on a variety of topics

Professional Development Consultant and Leader, 2008 - present

- Works with Alabama Learning Exchange (ALEX) content developers to provide instruction and training on resources, courses of studies, and integration strategies
- Consults with public and private LEAs to lead professional development for educators at the region, district or school levels.
- Works with Alabama State Department of Education and other organizations to provide quality professional development at annual conferences

Social Science Teacher, Pike County High, Pike County Schools, 8/2008 - 6/2011

- Worked with other social science teachers to develop benchmark testing, curriculum, and pacing guides
- Chaired the ACIP committee for two years, served on the school technology plan committee

PRESENTATIONS

AETC, June 2018

- Digital Citizenship Skills Everyone Needs
- Tech Tools that Facilitate the 4 C's
- Increase Student Engagement with Flipgrid, Edpuzzle and Nearpod

Alabama School Library Association Summer Conference, June 2018

- Fostering Collaboration Between the Library and the Classroom

ISTE, June 2017 (San Antonio, TX)

- "Digital Content Creation with Primary Learners"

American Library Association (ALA) Annual Conference, June 2017 (Chicago, IL)

- Publication and Poster Session: "Measuring AASL's ESSA Advocacy Impact"

AETC, June 2017

- "Engaging Presentation Tools" (Hands-on Workshop)
- "Help! I need a website!" (Hands-on Workshop)

Alabama School Library Association Summer Conference, June 2017

- "Using College and Career Readiness Standards to Teach Diversity, Tolerance, and Cultural Understanding."

AETC, June 2016

- "Teaching Digital Citizenship to Digital Natives"

AETC, June 2015

- "Help! I need a website!" (Hands-on Workshop)
- "Prezi, Glogster, and Tripline" (Hands-on Workshop)
- "Gaggle.net" Beyond Student Email"
- "Teaching Digital Citizenship to Digital Natives"

AETC, June 2014

- "Prezi, Glogster, and Mural.ly" (Hands-on Workshop)
- "Getting Started with Prezi"
- "Cell Phone and Mobile Devices in the Classroom"
- "Digital Content Curation: Pinterest for Professionals"

Alabama Association of School Librarians, June 2014

- Apps for Productivity and Instruction for Library Media Specialists

Elmore County Tech Blitz, July 2013

- "Cell Phone and Mobile Devices in the Classroom"
- "Digital Citizenship"

AETC, June 2013

- "Digital Content Curation: Pinterest for Professionals"
- "Cell Phone and Mobile Devices in the Classroom"
- "Augmented Reality Apps" (Hands-on Workshop)

AETC, June 2012

- "What do I do with an eReader in my classroom?"
- "Bringing History Alive with Technology"
- "Stepping Beyond PowerPoint: Creating Engaging Presentations"

Safety Net Academy/Dallas County Schools, 2012

- "Strategic Teaching and Purposeful Planning - Best Practices for Social Studies"

Pike County Schools Inservice, 2011

- Co-presenter, "ARI-PAL 7-12 Implementation Workshop"
- "Using Prezi to create interactive and fluid presentations"
- "Glogster - Publishing online and interactive posters"

Gulf Coast Writing Conference, July 2009

- Co-presenter, "Web 2.0 Tools"
- Co-presenter, "Blah, Blah, Blog"

Pike County Schools Inservice, August 2009

- Co-presenter, "Alabama Technology Course of Study Integration with English and Social Studies Curriculums" - 7th - 12th grade system-wide

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Library Association
- American Association of School Librarians
- Alabama School Library Association
- Alabama Leaders in Educational Technology
- International Society for Technology in Education
- Alpha Delta Kappa Honorary Teacher Sorority

TECHNOLOGY CERTIFICATIONS and MICROCREDENTIALS

- Google Certified Educator Levels 1 and 2
- Seesaw Ambassador
- Flipgrid Certified Educator
- EdPuzzle Coach
- Symbaloo Certified
- EdCamp Champ
- Apple Teacher

LEADERSHIP SKILLS

- Engaging stakeholders and community members
- Curriculum and instructional design
- Coaching of teachers to support professional learning
- Management of deadlines, goals, and tasks to manage a grant or program
- Planning, evaluating, and implementing timely and engaging professional learning
- Developing teacher leaders through reflective coaching practices

REFERENCES

Brad Johnson, Enterprise City Schools
Technology Coordinator
Dede Coe, Houston County Schools
At-Risk/Virtual Campus Director
Dr. Roland Weldon, Technology in Motion Specialist - Troy University
Dr. Vicki Gilmer, FRES Principal
Dr. Jack Hawkins, Troy University
Chancellor
Mrs. Tracy Arnold, Pike County Schools currently Pike County Elementary School Principal, formerly interim principal at Banks School
Mr. Willie Wright, Pike County High School Principal